STATEMENT OF PROBLEM		REQUESTING OFFICE
Worsening conditions in the political and social instability of Haiti mean that future events there will be of major concern to all nations with an interest in the rapidly changing Caribbean area. The past decade has witnessed not only the emergence of the Cuban communist state 48 miles across the Windward Passage from Haiti, but also a succession of unstable governments in the Dominican Republic at Haiti's backdoor and a clamor for independence among many of the poor and overcrowded colonial islands. Haiti may well play a significant new role in the developing situation. It is proposed to produce a GM that analyzes the basic physical and human resources involved in the complex Haitian situation and correlates factors of political and economic geography that influence it.		Self-initiated
